THE 1984 CLAW

WEIMAR HIGH SCHOOL

WEIMAR, TEXAS

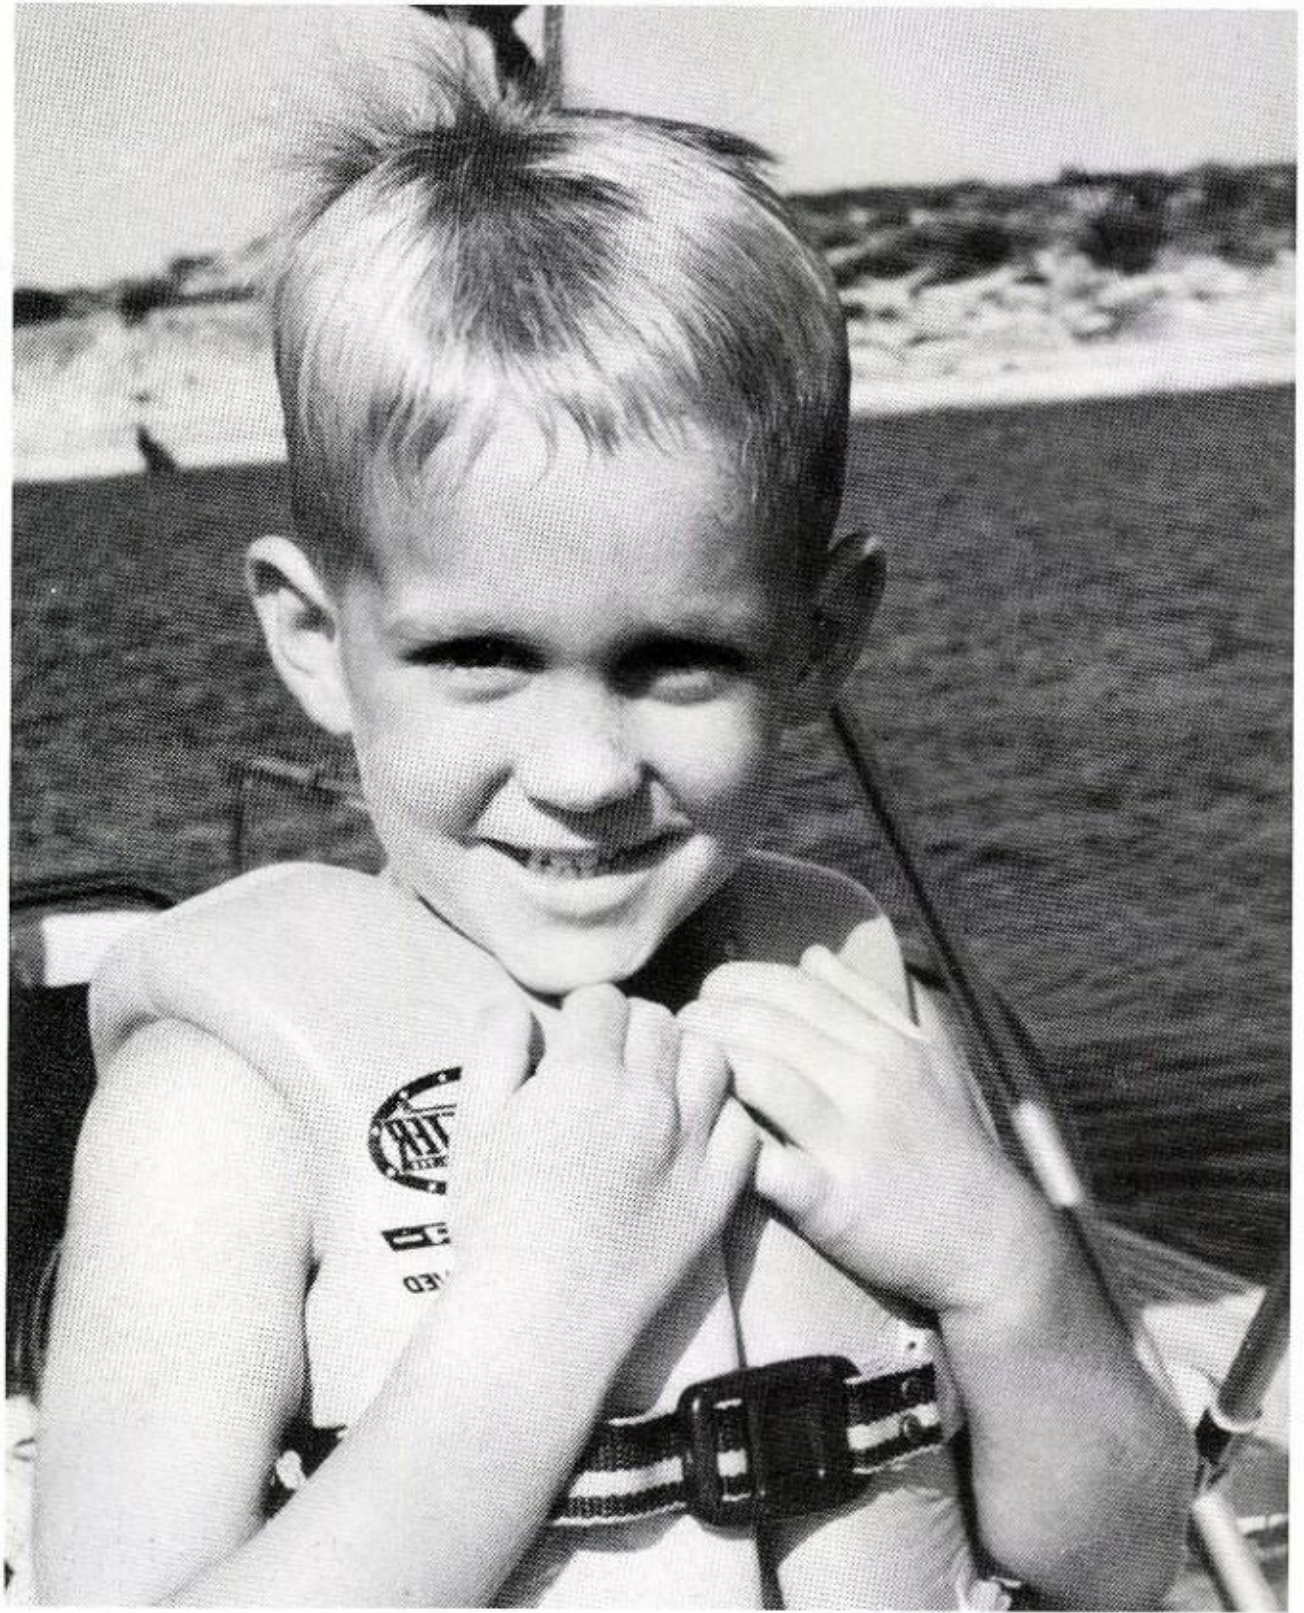

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY

Dallas, Texas

Jess was born to Phil and Cathy Fuchs Holman on March 27, 1978, in Wharton, Texas. He lived his life in Weimar and attended kindergarten at the elementary school. On October 22, 1983, at age five, he met with a tragic accident.

Jess lived life to its fullest. Everyday of his short life was busy. Walking was not part of his daily routine but running was. His sister Jill, says, "He was a fast kid because he could always get to Granny's first."

The little redheaded kid that touched so many lives will always be missed and remembered by his family and friends. Even though his life was short, it was very meaningful.

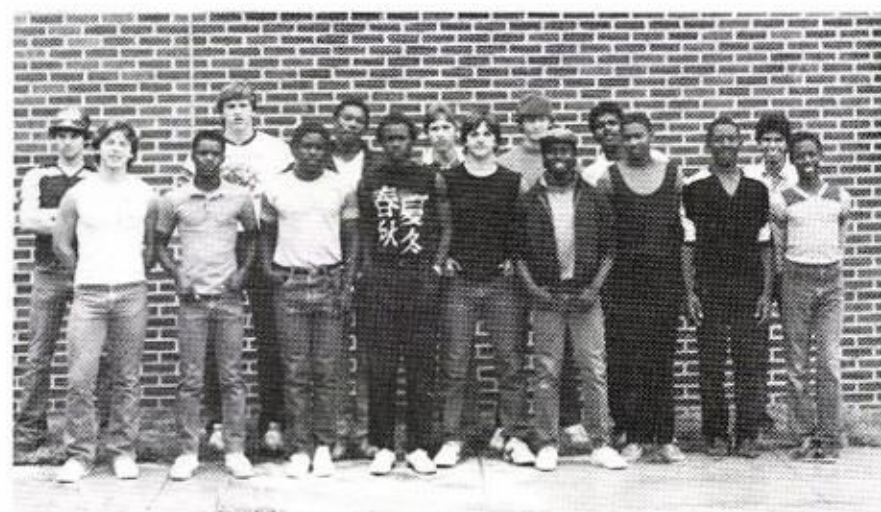

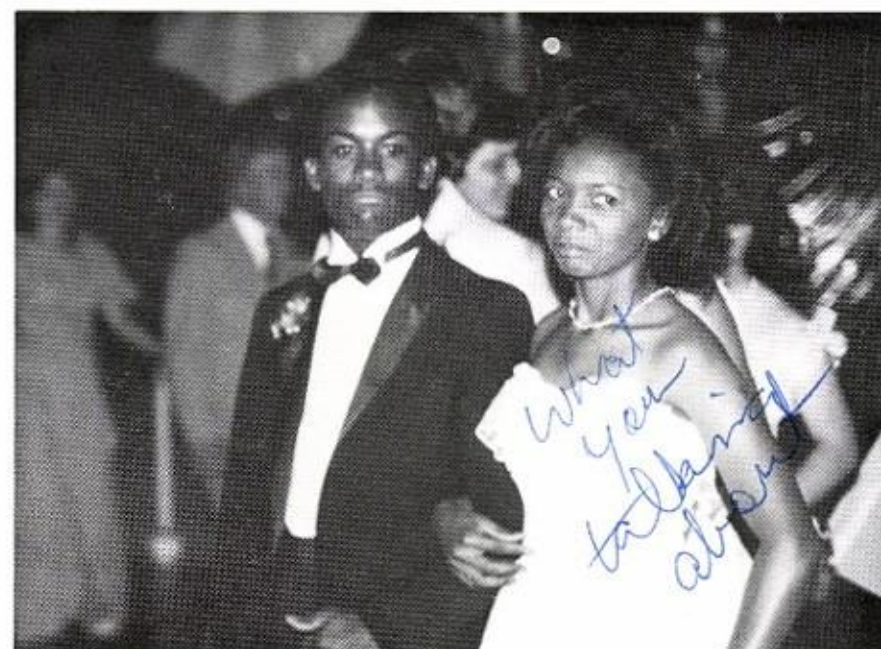

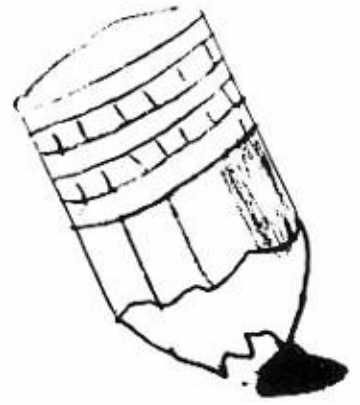

"We never lose the ones we love —
For even though they're gone
Within the hearts of those who care
Their memory lingers on."

Today is not yesterday. We ourselves change;
how can our works and thoughts,
if they are always to be the fittest,
continue always the same?
Change, indeed, is painful;
Yet ever needful;
and if Memory have its force and worth,
so also has Hope.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent and Secretaries

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I consider it one of the greatest privileges of my office to be allowed to comment on this passing of another milestone in the lives of the people whose pictures fill these pages.

At the completion of another school year, I congratulate the annual staff on the pictorial record of the achievements of our school. As we reminisce through these pages, our memories are assimilating a review of the past and a projection of the future. This year's book represents a never ending cycle of the influence of the Weimar Public Schools on the lives of those who pass through its portals. It is my constant endeavor and prayer that each of us, both student and teacher alike, realize that we are not a part of this influence . . . we are this influence!

To the Seniors who leave this stage to enter a broader and more advanced life, I offer congratulations for achievements thus far, and best wishes for a happy and successful future.

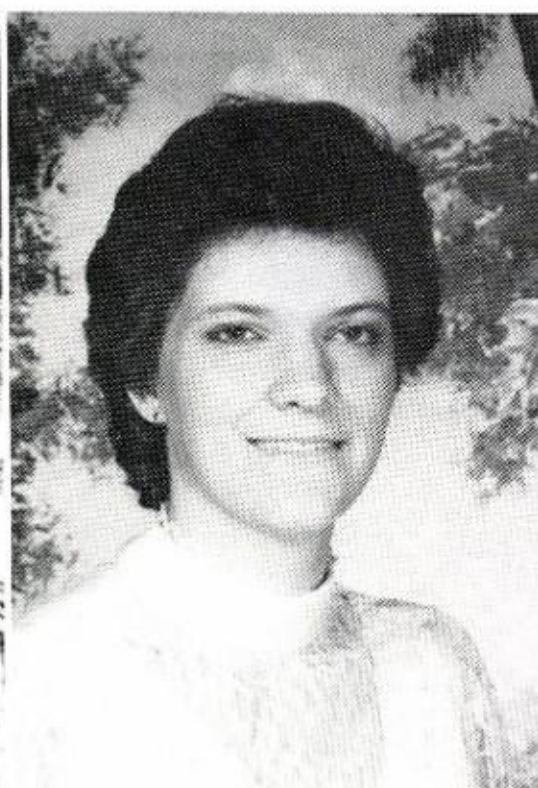

Sincerely,

Wayne T. Wise

Charles, Jack, Leon, James, Robert, Laurene, and I, serving as your Board of Education, have spent this year watching the new facilities for Weimar High School reach completion. This has been an exciting, and sometimes trying, job. The old building has served us well, but the new facilities are needed for the faculty and staff to give our students the very best opportunities to learn and prepare themselves for living in our modern world.

Now that the new facilities are nearing completion, it is time for us to turn our attention to updating our policies to permit curriculum updating which has been mandated by the Texas Education Agency. We hope to have a part in upgrading our school so that it will be a Number 1 learning institution.

The WHS Student Council is a unique organization on campus because it is representative of the total student body. It is an organization composed of members who have been elected by their fellow classmates to represent them in council meetings and in meetings with the administration.

Throughout the year the Student Council takes part in community activities and projects. The School year 1983-84 will be remembered for its renewed efforts in Drug and Alcohol education. The Student Council along with local community organizations waged war against Alcohol and Drug Abuse. The council sponsored an Alcohol and Drug Abuse Poster Contest for the fifth graders of Weimar Elementary and St. Michael's. The Council sponsored an assembly for High School students on Alcohol and Drugs. A door to door campaign raised money to purchase pamphlets to distribute at our town's annual celebration, The Gedenke. Posters were placed in the hallways to encourage awareness of Alcohol and Drug Problems.

Homecoming October 21, 1983

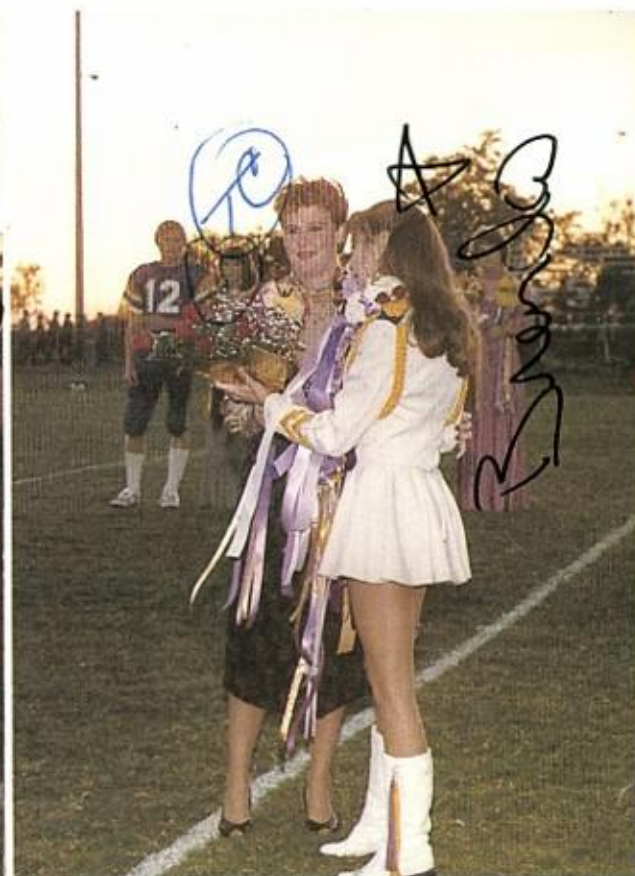

Homecoming was a huge success this year for Weimar High. Teresa Garcia was elected Homecoming Queen and the Wildcat football team won an unforgettable 34-31 game against the Lexington Eagles. We shall forever be indebted to Carlos White who made the winning touchdown in the closing moments of the game.

On Saturday, the Weimar exes gathered for a brunch and tour of the old and new buildings, and a dance in the evening. Truly, it was a week worth remembering!

Don't walk in front of me,
I will not follow.
But, walk beside me
And be my friend.

Senior Class Flower Orchid

Senior Class Song Imagine

Imagine there's no heaven
It's easy if you try
No hell below us
Above us only sky
Imagine all the people
Living for today . . .

Imagine there's no countries
It isn't hard to do
Nothing to kill or die for
And no religion too
Imagine all the people
Living life in peace . . .

Imagine no possessions
I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger
A brotherhood of man
Imagine all the people
Sharing all the world . . .

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one.

The Weimar Wildcat Band has, for the first time in its history, been awarded Sweepstakes Band. This coveted award can only be acquired when a band receives a Division I, or superior rating in all three of the U.I.L. contests it competes in. These contests are marching, concert, and sightreading. All of the hard work for this year has definitely been worth it.

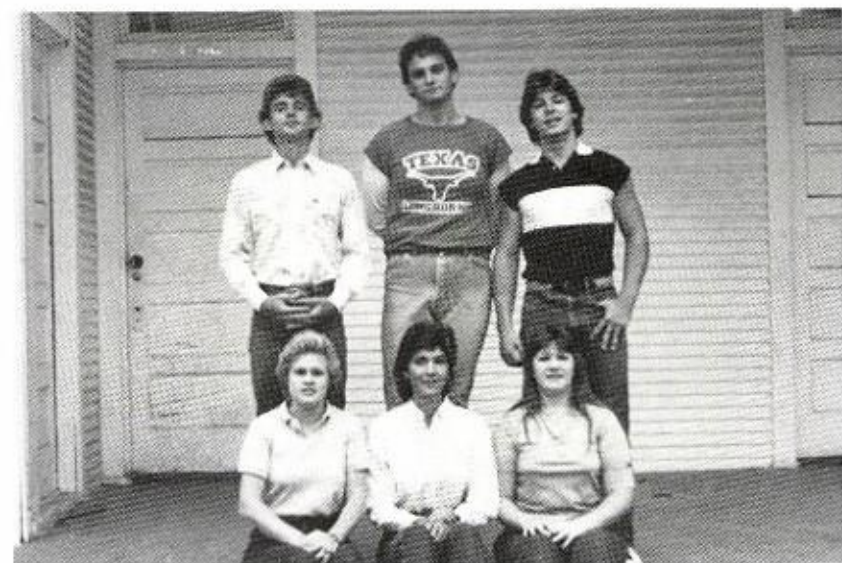

Band Officers: Missy Kroll, Sherise Raabe, Janet Hattermann, Sharon Houston, Kimberly Beken, Dalinda Koehn.

Solo and Ensemble Contestants: D. Koehn, S. Raabe, M. Behlen, V. Dunn, S. Kainer, J. Hattermann, B. Besch, W. Raabe, C. Johnson, T. Kram, K. Holub, B. Novak, M. Kroll, J. Sanders, C. Sanders.

Wildcat Staff

The 1983-84 Wildcat Staff was very active in reporting school events to the community. They prepared various reports on sports, academics, and Senior spotlights which were published by the Weimar Mercury on a bi-monthly basis. The column featured several poems and other original work by staff members. It served as an information source for those not directly involved in school activities.

Fads and Fashions — — —

Everyone's Favorite Pastime: Chewing Gum

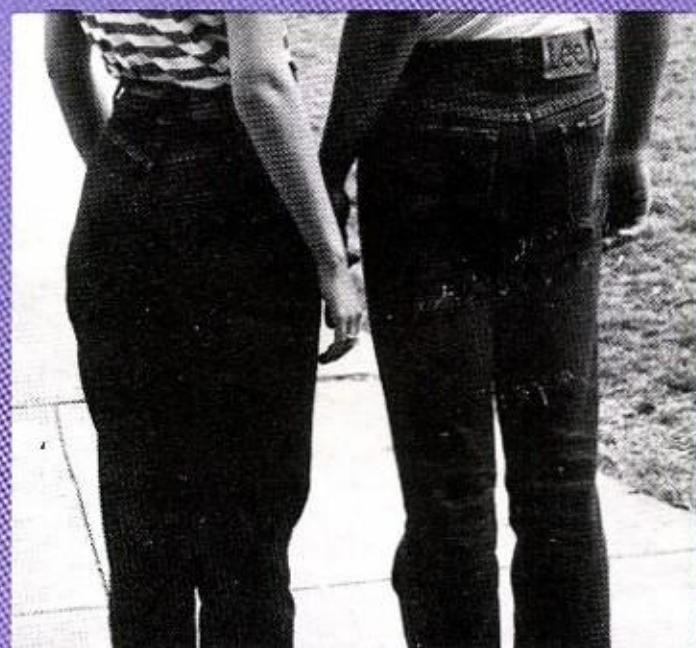

From penny loafers,

to saddle oxfords,

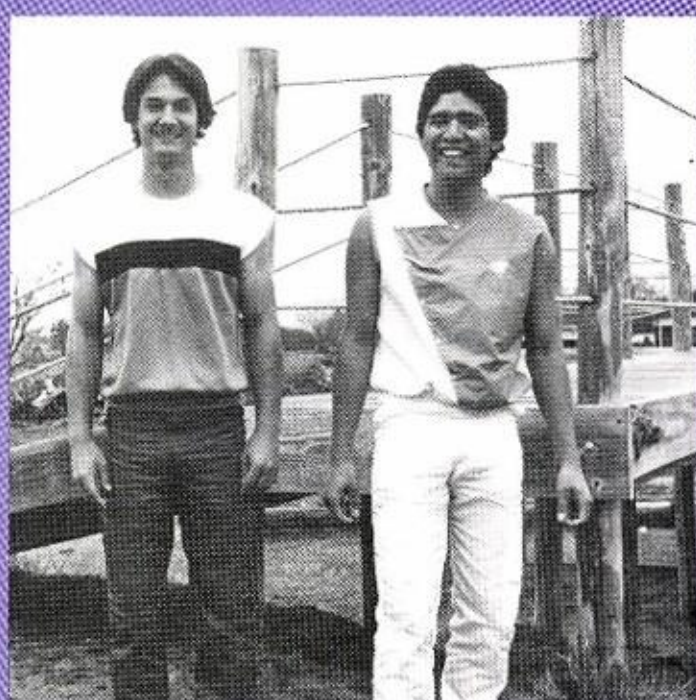

to Kaepa tennis shoes.

From jeans,

to mini-skirts,

to parachute pants,

From twist beads,

Short hair is the new style.

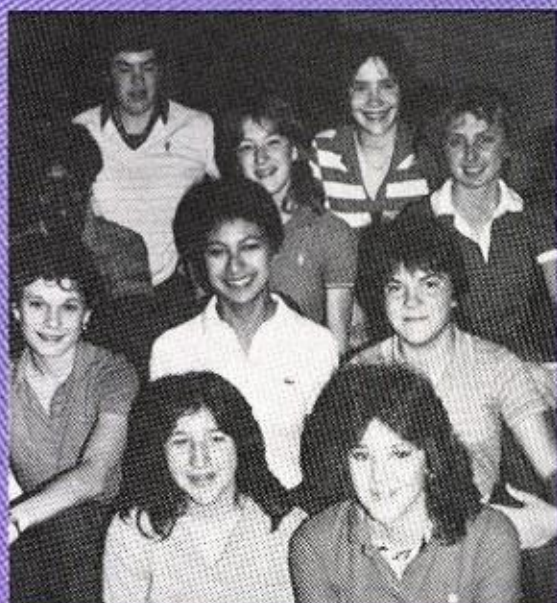

to add-heads.

To something new, to something strange.

Longfellow

From t-shirts,

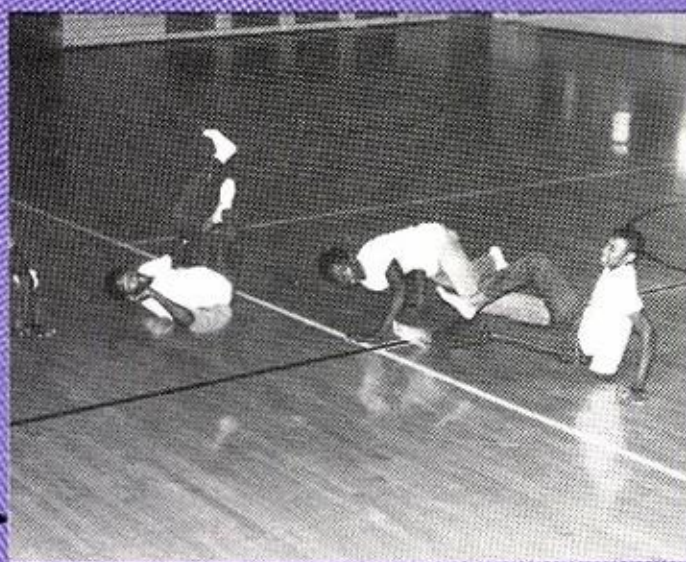

to polo shirts,

to oxford shirts.

From polka dancing,

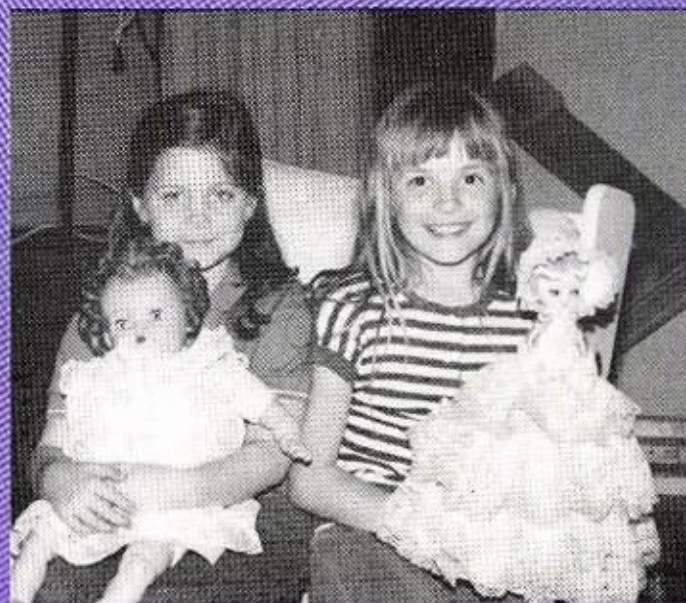

to break dancing.

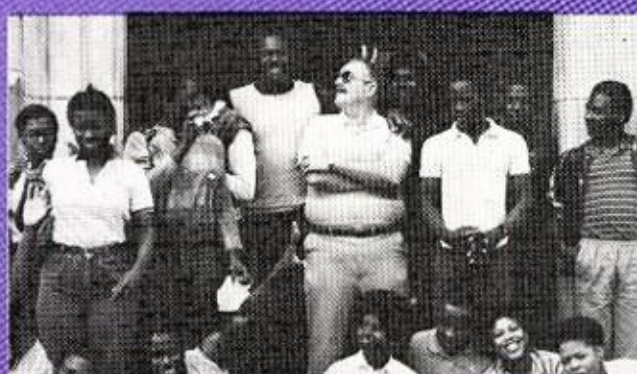

From sports,

to cabbage patch dolls.

Dating ranks higher than going steady.

1984

It's finally here.
A time that all scholars
Have come to fear.

It's a time of intelligence,
A time of wit,
By golly Orwell,
This is it.

It's the age of computers,
Robots, and the like.
Let's each make a plane —
Forget the kite.

Should Reagan remain in
His respectable place,
A change in deficits
We are sure to face.

However, if Mondale
Is the voter's choice,
Then the democratic party
Will increase its voice.

If Jesse Jackson
Gets his way
Minorities will jump
And shout Hooray!

If Glenn should achieve
The honored post,
Then traveling in space
Will be first and foremost.

(Someday we'll see ourselves
As others see,
And oh what a sight
That will be!)

We'll soon travel to Jupiter
Or to Mars,
Or visit a cousin on some Distant star.

Fast food, fast drinks,
Fast lives we live.
Have we forgotten what
It means to give?

Exercising has become
A major craze,
It's something we all do
To pass the days.

Eating right and living right
Is everyone's concern.
In it, we find something
We all might learn.

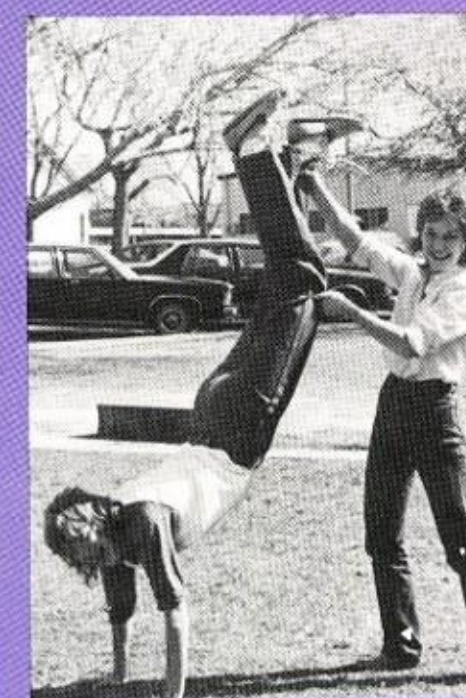

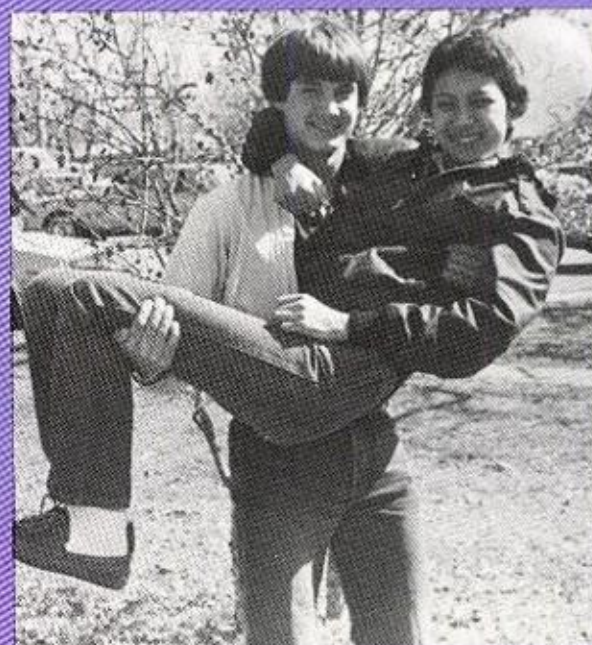

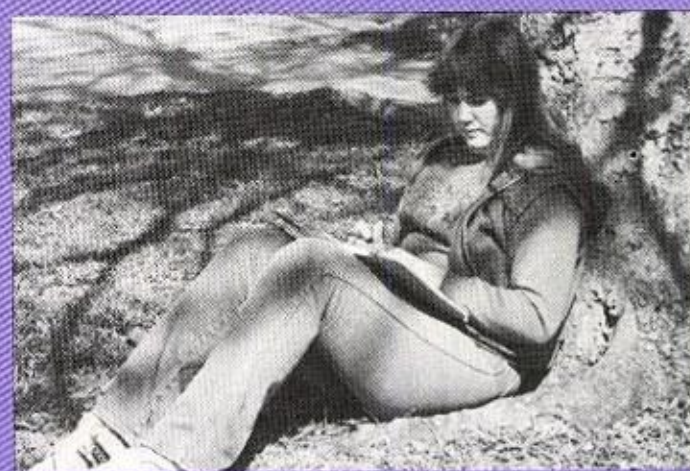

Who knows what this year
Has in store,
Be it fashions,
Fads or more.

Whatever the outcome,
Whatever shall be,
It's dependent on you
And dependent on me!

Old School Song

*Faithful and true-hearted, let us boost for Weimar High;
 May she always rank the highest, may her colors ever fly
 We will stand for her united; of her deeds we'll gladly tell
 Her colors gleaming, her banners streaming,
 So here's a cheer for the school that we all love so well:*

*Joyous and ever loyal, let us boost for Weimar High,
 Let every voice sing, let every heart ring
 There's no time to grieve nor sigh.
 It's ever onward, our course pursuing
 Not by luck, but by the rule
 For united we will boost for her, our own High School.*

*The honors she has taken on the track and with the ball;
 May she always rank the highest, may her colors never fall.
 There's no other that can match her, when her team is on the field
 Her boys the fleetest, her girls the sweetest;
 So here's a song for the school that we will always yield:*

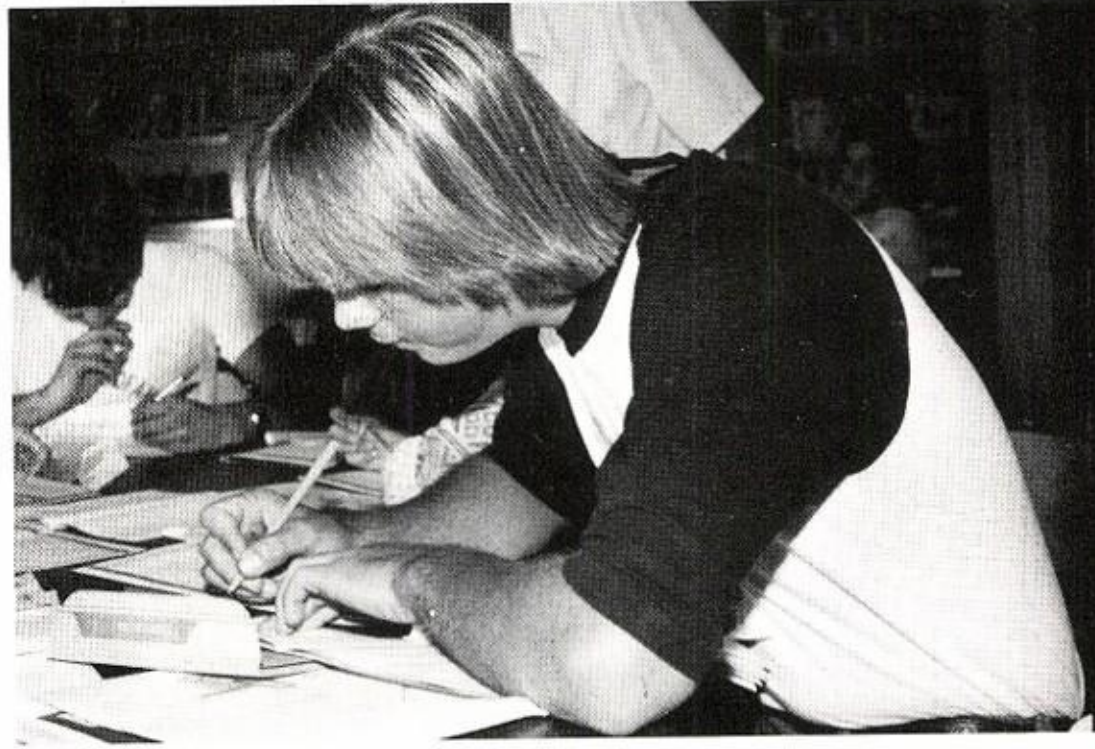

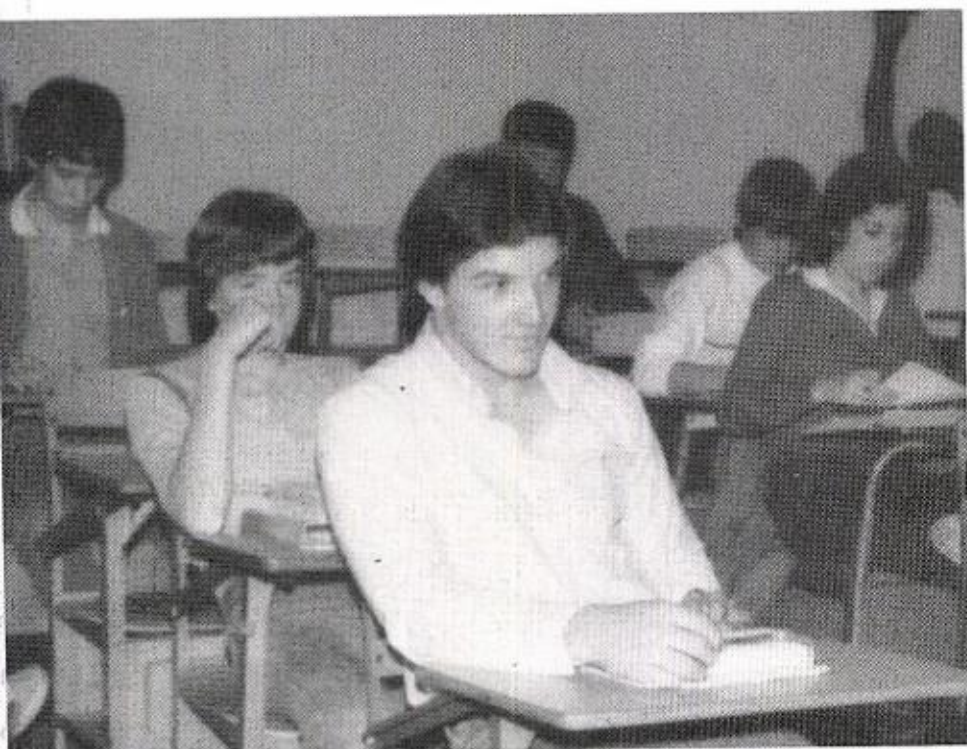

This School Song was taken from the 1939 Claw. The 1939 Claw was the very first Claw ever!

A few words may have changed, but the meaning is still clear to the students of WHS: WHS IS THE BEST!
